

Paul Isaak

Paul Isaak has 25 yrs of stage experience performing for events all across North America. He's been featured at international festivals, on board cruise ships, at many corporate conventions, and even on movie sets.

He combines skillful juggling, quick wit, and audience participation into a hilarious, on-stage spectacle that delights crowds of all shapes and sizes.

===== Paul's Show =====

More than just a juggler or a comic, Paul Isaak is a captivating one-man theatrical variety show - ideal as an opening act, an emcee, or your entertainment headliner. Perfect for Staff Parties, Conferences, Client Appreciations, and other Corporate Events.

From the first moment the audience is captivated by his energy and enthusiasm, as he lures all spectators into joining him on a comedy roller coaster ride which leaves them breathless. Although he comes equipped with a box filled with shiny juggling toys, playing to the audience is the trademark of his show. He's mastered the art of working with each audience to bring out the funny side of individuals in the crowd, turning members of the audience into volunteers who become the stars of the show.

He can juggle flaming torches, plates, knives & other treacherous toys (while unicycling!), can bounce juggle five balls, shave with a flying machete, eat fire, and escape from the most ludicrous straight jacket ever conceived. Amazingly, even with all of these unique skills, it is Isaak's gregarious personality that is most captivating to the masses. He effortlessly invites each member of the audience to leave their worldly troubles behind and to lose themselves in the moment.

"His presentation of 'Juggling, Life, Balance' was unique, exciting, and thought provoking. My staff enjoyed every minute and as I looked around the room, I saw smiles and listened to genuine laughter."

- Mary Beames, Telus Sourcing Solutions

"Paul Isaak proved to be the perfect choice for our Christmas party. He read the audience well and seemed to have no difficulty engaging them. He arrived early to get set up, mixed well with guests over dinner and was very well groomed to give a very entertaining performance." - Doreen M, City of Red Deer

Some of Paul's Routines Include:

Shaving - Give Paul a Machete, some shaving cream, and some appropriate background music, and you'll witness the fastest close shave in the world.

Unicycling - Paul is about to juggle, while riding a six foot tall unicycle. What could possibly go wrong, except - EVERYTHING!!! This comedy routine is a sure fire hit with crowds, and turns a member of the audience into a super star.

Fire Juggling - Do people want to see an artistic routine, based on skill, and years of practice? Of course not, they want to watch some fool get burnt! Fortunately Paul Isaak gives the crowd a little of each, as he lights up the stage with fire juggling.
